- ☐ the language of the translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rule 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

- ☐ contained in the international application in written form.
- ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.
- ☐ The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.
- ☐ The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished.

4. ☐ The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

- ☐ the description, pages _____
- ☐ the claims, Nos. _____
- ☐ the drawings, sheets/fig _____

5. ☐ This report has been established as if (some of) the amendments had not been made, since they have been considered to go beyond the disclosure as filed, as indicated in the Supplemental Box (Rule 70.2(c)).

* Replacement sheets which have been furnished to the receiving Office in response to an invitation under Article 14 are referred to in this report as "originally filed" and are not annexed to this report since they do not contain amendments (Rule 70.16 and 70.17).

 Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report.

Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-6	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations

Reference is made to the following document:

D1: FR-A-2 198 469 (ROUSTANG SA) 29 March 1974 (1974-03-29)

D1, which is considered to be the prior art closest to the subject matter of claim 1, describes a sealed package that is easy to tear open for packaging paste-like products that can be changed to a semi-liquid state, consisting of two thin films.

Consequently, the subject matter of claim 1 differs from this known package in that the package is made of polypropylene, has a grip tab consisting of a triangular projection formed on one of the sides of the first sheet and in that the tear strips form a pointed U-shape, of which the point is in said triangular projection.

The subject matter of claim 1 is therefore novel (PCT Article 33(2)).

The problem that the present invention is intended to solve can be considered to be that of making a polypropylene package easier to open.

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No.
PCT/FR 03/03577

The solution to this problem, as proposed in claim 1 of the present application, is considered to involve an inventive step (PCT Article 33(3)) for the following reasons:

the prior art does not disclose the possibility of a grip tab, consisting of a triangular projection formed on one of the sides of the first sheet, with the tear strips forming a pointed U-shape in said triangular projection, whether for polypropylene sheets or sheets of another material.

Claims 2 to 5 are dependent on claim 1 and thus also comply, as such, with the PCT requirements of novelty and inventive step.
